All Souls' Day

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

- "On this day is observed the commemoration of the faithful departed, in which our common and pious Mother the Church, immediately after having endeavored to celebrate by worthy praise all her children who already rejoice in heaven, strives to aid by her powerful intercession with Christ, her Lord and Spouse, all those who still groan in purgatory, so that they may join as soon as possible the inhabitants of the heavenly city."
 —Roman Martyrology

Remember to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory from November 1 through the 8th.

There will be No Mass on Tuesday, November 9th and Friday, November 12th. We will not have reconciliation on Thursday, Nov. 11th as Father Albert will be gone November 8—12. He will be in Florida for a 25th Sacerdotal Anniversary of Father Mariano Catura.

The Arts and Environment Committee would like to thank those who stepped forward offering their time and skills. It takes many hands to create such a welcoming church. The summer to fall and soon to Advent decorations are very appreciated. They still have a few openings for Christmas helpers yet, if you would like to get involved please contact the office.
 Thanks to the A & E Committee!

Bulletin Connection - In today's Gospel, Jesus "synthesizes" his message in the "Great Commandment." The Jews knew these two commandments well. To this day, observant Jews pray twice daily the Shema: to love God "with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your strength." The word shema means "to hear," and comes from the first words of the prayer, "Hear, O Israel. . ." The text for the Shema, which is also inscribed in the "mezuzah," the small container affixed to the door of every Jewish home, is found in Deuteronomy 6: 4-6 (today's first reading). While the Torah outlined a Jew's responsibility to one's neighbors, Jesus is the first to make of these two a single commandment: "There is no other commandment greater than these." The only way we can adequately celebrate our live for God is in extending that love to our neighbors. - Deacon Jerry Cross
